SHOT THROUGH WINDOW.

Heartbroken over the alleged desertion of his wife on Monday last and suspicious that the man whom he claims broke up his home made a desperate endeavor to kill him early Tuesday morning in the kitchen of his home, William Basil, of Baltimore, will shake the dust from his feet for Suffolk, Va. The first report of what Basil alleges was a murderous attack upon him was given to the authorities of the Northeastern Police Station late Tuesday night.

Basil stated that while he was walking in the kitchen of his home early Tuesday morning someone fired at him through the open window, one of the bullets lodging in his right hand and inflicting a slight wound, the other bullet going astray. When asked if he could identify the assailant, Basil replied that he could not, but had good reason to believe that a man whom he accuses of running off with his wife on Monday morning was the one who made the attack.

SAVES NEARLY $5,000.

Some interesting figures are shown in the annual report of work done at the Western State Hospital for the Insane at Staunton, Va., which has just been submitted to the board of directors by the superintendent, Dr. J. S. de Jarnette.

The expenses have been reduced $4 per capita, or a total of nearly $5,000. There are 1,129 patients at the hospital. The wages of the 150 attendants have been raised $4,000 during the past year.

A ward for tuberculosis patients has just been completed, and an infirmary is soon to be erected.

The hospital owns a large farm of 480 acres, which the patients work the year round. On the farm are 120 hogs, 50 cows, 1,000 chickens, 3,000 fruit trees and 700 grape vines, besides corn, wheat and rye in great abundance.

GREAT FLOUR MILLS TO BE BUILT.

The Washburn-Crosby Company will build a new flour mill of 6,000 barrels daily capacity, at a cost of $500,000 at Buffalo, N. Y. Work will begin immediately. W. H. Bovey, of Minneapolis, will have charge of construction, and the mill, which should be ready to operate by next July, will be managed by F. F. Henry.

The Washburn-Crosby Company, with its present mills, will then have 12,000 barrels capacity at Buffalo. The company only recently completed a new mill for Gold Medal Flour in Minneapolis, and a fireproof grain elevator of 600,000 capacity. With its large Minneapolis output, the Buffalo enlargement, and its mills at Louisville, Ky., and Great Falls and Kalispell, Mon., the company's daily capacity will exceed 40,000 barrels—far the greatest in the world.

Decision to build the new plant was reached at the annual meeting recently. The old officers were re-elected: James S. Bell, president; William H. Dunwody and John Washburn, vice-presidents; C. J. Martin, secretary and treasurer.

John Washburn said after the meeting: "The flour business is good. We find increasing demand for our product and need the larger capacity to meet it. Only recently we increased our Minneapolis capacity and added greatly to our grain storage facilities there. Demand keeps on catching up to us. The business is profitable and we find it necessary to keep adding to our plants from time to time."

A royal welcome awaits him in his home city, plans for his reception and the parade having been completed.

It is reported that soon after his return the cardinal will announce that Bishop Denis J. O'Connell, of Washington, will be coadjutor of the archdiocese of Baltimore and that very Rev. O. B. Corrigan will be made auxiliary bishop.

Elected!

This is a momentous period in the history of this country—two great parties battling for political supremacy. This is true in no greater degree with parties than with business houses and many times in the bustle and hurrah incident to incressing trade one is apt to represent an article 100 per cent better than it really is. It has been said that "a word to the wise is sufficient," but our experience has taught us that the bulk of the people buying goods today cannot be led by deceptive methods—they have to be shown. We want to say to you that any goods we place our stamp of approval on are just as we represent them. A trial order of any brand we advertise will prove what we say to be true. We want to submit for your consideration this week a few of our medium grades of Whiskies, which we guaranteed will give satisfaction.

BASKETS.—A good assortment of Lunch and Market Baskets. J. C. MILBURN.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 8, 1908.

THE Balkan situation is becoming more alarming daily. Crete, heretofore autonomous under the suzerainty of Turkey, yesterday proclaimed her union with Greece by raising the flag of that country. Turkey has formally protested against the action of Bulgaria and has appealed for her rights under the treaty of Berlin, and asks for a conference of the signatories. The Porte also announces that she will protest Austria's acts. Great Britain opposes a conference, and urges Austria to reconsider the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Great Britain is unable to condone any infraction of the Berlin treaty. Russia serves notice that if there is to be a revision of the Berlin treaty, she will demand compensation. The Servians are still clamoring for war against Austria on account of the latter's annexation of two provinces. Italy asks Austria to evacuate Novipazan-Austria, and to renounce her protectorate over Montenegro. Russia, which was bottled up in the Black Sea by the Berlin treaty, now virtually demands that her men-of-war be allowed to pass in and out of the Dardanelles. The outcome of the present troubles is hard to divine. It is thought in some quarters that the sultan is about to lose his foothold in Europe. The "sick man's" empire has for a long time been looked upon as a house of cards which existed only by virtue of the treaty of Berlin. Some of the signatories at present are not disposed to regard this treaty as binding; hence present conditions.

THE republicans in the present campaign are encumbered with a heavy load in the shape of the empty dinner pail. Eight years ago when a spurt of business activity followed the depression of previous years, the party after appropriating the glory of the improved conditions to republican methods, had the full dinner pail painted upon its banners. The leaders now find themselves in a dilemma. After nearly twelve years of republican rule thousands of mechanics in every section of the country find shems-lves idle. More than four thousand men, former employes of the Steel Corporation's tube plant at Wheeling, W. Va., have been out of work for nearly a year, and they are justly laying the blame at the door of the ruling party. Soup houses have become a cruel necessity, and there is no telling how much suffering will be endured by the working classes before the advent of next spring. Such are some of the pictures now being thrown on the screen as a result of reckless legislation on the part of the republican party.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is again facing stubborn facts which flatly contradict some of his recent assertions. In the president's second letter to William J. Bryan, given out at the White House, September 27, Mr. Roosevelt said: "No perference or privilege was granted to any company (the Prairie Oil and Gas for instance) that was not granted to all others." The records of the Interior Department show that Secretary Garfield did exactly what it has been maintained by the president he did not do, as they made it plain that the secretary did grant to the Prairie Oil and Gas Company valuable leases on special conditions outside of his predecessor's rules and regulations of 1906, while denying similar treatment to a Wichita and other independent concerns having absolutely no connection with the Standard Oil trust. Now the president did not know of this procedure, or the official records of the Department of the Interior do not tell the truth.

From Washington

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 8.

Col. William F. Stewart was in consultation with his attorney today preparing his defense for presentation to the army retiring board this afternoon. It is understood that the colonel's complete health record since his entrance into the service will be submitted, as well as the testimony of a prominent local civilian doctor in opposition to the contentions of the medical members of the board that he is suffering from a dangerous affliction of the heart. Those who have seen the colonel's papers say that they show he has not been on sick report for twenty-five years, a most unusual record for any army officer. Col. Stewart desires to go upon the stand himself, and if he does he will offer to take the 90 mile ride, from which he was barred on account of the surgeon's report at Fort Huachuca, last month, at any time the board may designate.

The Interior Department denied today the published charge that the Standard Oil Company had been given special concessions in pipe line leases in Oklahoma, that have not been extended to independent companies. Assistant Secretary Pierce had a conference with the president on the subject. As he left the White House he declared that the correspondence between Secretary Garfield and the Prairie Oil and Gas Company which has been published with a view of challenging the accuracy of the president's recent reply to Bryan, does not give the proper interpretation to the business connections between the oil company and the department.

Plans for the reception of the Atlantic fleet at Hampton Roads on February 22, contemplate a naval review even larger than the one held at Jamestown Exposition last year, when the vessels of foreign nations were assembled there with those of America. The home coming fleet will be met at some point in the Atlantic or Mediterranean by the Third Squadron of that command which is now being organized under the command of Rear Admiral Arnold, and will be escorted to Hampton Roads by them. At the Roads, the augumented fleet will be welcomed by all the remaining available warships in service on the Atlantic Coast, including cruisers, gunboats and torpedo craft and will be reviewed by the president.

United States District Attorney Sims of Chicago is here today conferring with the attorney general in reference to arguments to be delivered in the Supreme Court next week in three important cases against the five great express companies for exchanging franks against the "Monon" for exchanging mileage for newspaper advertising, and against the Chicago and Alton for the alleged granting of rebates to the beef trust.

Eight new cases of cholera developed in Manila for the 24 hours ensning at 8 o'clock this morning.

It is the impression at the Department of Justice that the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Chicago may hand down its decision next week on the government's petition for a rehearing in the $29,000,000 Standard Oil case.

RIVAL CANDIDATES MEET.

W. J. Bryan and W. H. Taft, rival candidates for the presidency, met last night at the fourth annual banquet of the Chicago Association of Commerce, given by the National Deep Waterways Association.

The meeting is said to have been the first of its kind. The dramatic moment which had been anticipated with such deep interest was soon over. Mr. Bryan's hand awaited that of Mr. Taft. A single lingering pressure, a word or so, which none could overhear, because of the tumult, and the republican leader passed on to a chair at the right of Mr. Hall.

Mr. Taft in his speech reviewed present conditions and issues and in reference to the judiciary said:

"In the Philippines we have adopted the system of refusing a judge his regular monthly stipend unless he can file a certificate with his receipt for his salary, in which he certifies on honor that he has disposed of all the business submitted to him within the previous 60 days. This has had a marvelously good effect in keeping the docket of the court clear. Another defect in our judicial system is giving to defeated litigants two appeals. So far as the litigant is concerned, one appeal is all that he should be entitled to. The function of the court of last resort should be to lay down general principles of law for the benefit and guidance of the community at large. The great body of the litigation should be finally disposed of in the courts of first instance or the intermediate appellate courts of first instance, or the intermediate appellate courts, and it is better that the cases be all decided prominently even if a few are wrongly decided.

Mr. Bryan in the beginning of his speech said:

"I appreciate the honor of being present on this occasion. I appreciate the generous words of the chairman in presenting me to you. I think that it is a good omen when we can lay aside partisan feeling on an occasion like this and, forgetting the things that separate us, remember the things that are more numerous and more important that unite us in the bonds of common citizenship. I think I can see signs of progress in politics. When I first began to run for president there were no occasions of this kind. I think I note a larger charity, a broader liberality and a more kindly feeling than has sometimes prevailed in the past. Here the chairmen of the representative committees meet, willing even in the heat of campaign to pause for a moment in the giving out of estimates. Here the treasurer of the respective committees suspend for a moment the investigation of the business conditions of those who send in checks. And here 'two distinguished' citizens at large meet both uncertain as to which will be confined. We shall carry away delightful recollections of this occasion, for whatever the election may show we may remember one occasion when we were treated with equal consideration. I am glad to meet at this board one who has been honored by his party with leadership in a great campaign. I am glad to testify to my appreciation of his abilities and his virtues. If I am successful the victory will be the greater to have won from such, and if I am defeated the sorrow will be less to have been defeated by such."

The remainder of Mr. Bryan's speech was in reference to corporations and other issues which now confront the country.

Sisters in Jail.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Catharine Beisel, and her sister, Mrs. J. Clayton Erb, are today in the Media jail, having been committed by the coroner for the murder of Captain J. Clayton Erb, private secretary to Isaac W. Durham on Tuesday night. Efforts will be made by counsel for Mrs. Erb to have her released on habeas corpus, but it is the belief of the police that such an application will be refused.

Mrs. Beisel's part in the tragedy was told at the inquest by herself. She said: "I shot Captain Erb. I am sorry, but I could not help it. I took the revolver from him and pulled the trigger. It kept on shooting. I could not stop it."

Mrs. Beisel, the coroner's jury decided, killed Captain Erb. The verdict made no mention of Mrs. Erb nor Roger Fronefield, her counsel, who fought to save her.

The widow and relatives of Erb are now contesting for possessing of his body, Counsel for the widow insist that she has the prior claim under the law, while counsel for his relatives contend that the body belongs to them.

The body of Erb remains at Red Gables, both body and house being in charge of a deputy coroner. Pending adjustment of the dispute no arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Ten thousand people camped at the polo grounds last night waiting for the final game which will decide the championship between the Cubs and the Giants today. The game was called at 2.40. The batteries: Chicago—Pfeister and Kling. New York—Mathewson and Bresnahan. The New Yorks took the field first.

The Balkan Situation.

London, Oct. 8.—Irreconcilable differences between the great powers as to the programme for the proposed international conference to revise the treaty of Berlin today loom up as the most serious menace in the Balkan situation.

Dispatches from the various chancelleries show that the powers are hopelessly clashing and the prospects of a peaceful conference momentarily decreasing. The present crisis bids fair to disrupt the new understanding between England, France and Russia.

The British foreign office announces that it will not agree to the consideration of any features of the treaty except the existing issues, which would preclude the possibility of Russia gaining free access to the Bosphorus and Dardanelles.

France and Russia are demanding a complete revision of the treaty, an entirely new treaty, in fact, giving them a larger share of the Balkan advantages.

Turkey has indicated that she will insist on a heavy compensation for the loss of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and says that unless the conference is held and her demand granted, she will act herself.

The defiant attitude of Germany and Austria, still linked together in the mass, is another ominous sign. These powers ridicule the idea of the annexation being set aside and even declare that it is not a subject for the conference. They will not join in the conference unless the other powers accept their position that the treaty has not been violated by Austria's action.

London, Oct. 8.—Unless Austria beats an ignominous retreat from her present position, Turkey will declare war, according to the statement to the United Press today by a member of the Turkish Embassy, who, for obvious reasons, would not permit the use of his name.

Athens, Oct. 8.—Desiring a union with Crete and the friendship of Turkey at the same time, Greece is today confronted with a perplexing problem by the action of Crete in throwing off the suzerainty of Turkey and declaring a union with Greece. The Greek government admits that it would have preferred Crete delay its action until the present Turkish tangle is cleared up.

Belgrade, Oct. 8.—The announcement of the resignation of the Servian cabinet, under the premiership of M. Vekimirovics, is expected to be made at the opening session of the Skupschtine on Friday. The cabinet is known to favor peace and to be at variance with the overwhelming sentiment of the country.

Communications are passing today between Servia, Roumania and Montenegro, looking to an anti-Austrian alliance. The latter two have declared the Berlin treaty no longer binding upon them as a result of Austria's "flagrant violations," of its provisions.

Canea, Oct. 8.—The Moslem residents of Crete have armed themselves and are today pouring into Canea, threatening to undo the secession from Turkey. A clash between them and the adherents of the Greek church. The Moslems fear that a union is imminent with Greece will result in a restriction of their religious liberties. The Moslems, however, are greatly outnumbered.

Vienna, Oct. 8.—Albania has declared her independence of Turkey, according to a report that reached Vienna today. Albania is a mountainous country of European Turkey bordering on the Adriatic. It has a population of about 2,000,000.

Constantinople, Oct. 8.—The cruiser Medjidieh and three torpedo boats were today dispatched to Samos, which is reported to be on the verge of declaring her independence. Samos is an island off the west coast of Asia Minor, forty-two miles southwest of Smyrna. It is an autonomous municipality, but has been compelled to pay tribute to Turkey.

Berlin, Oct. 8.—A message to the Lockal Anzieger from Scutari, Asia Minor, says that the Albanian magnates met in that town and declared Albania to be an independent republic.

Belgrade, Oct. 8.—Several scores of persons were injured here today in a clash between the police and a mob during an attack on the office of the foreign ministry. The mob was incensed at the week note of protest sent by the ministry to Austria and set out to be revenged. The police used their sabres on the crowd and were assailed in return with stones and clubs. The second reserves were called out today, being added to the 120,000 first reserves that were called out by a royal ukase on Tuesday.

Budapest, Oct. 8.—Denying that the annexation of Bosnia and Herogvina was for territorial expansion, and expressing his best wishes for Turkey, Emperor Franz Josef addressed the Austro-Hungarian delegation today. The emperor closed his address by urging liberal military appropriations, declaring it impossible for his country to carry out its reforms unless well armed.

Belgrade, Oct. 8.—Austrian troops today occupied the Veska Tunnel on the Austrian frontier and are holding up all troop trains from Servia. Fearing an invasion by Austrians, the Servian government today ordered the removal of the headquarters of the war and foreign offices, the general staff offices and the national bank from Belgrade to the interior. A war council has been summoned for tonight to consider a declaration of war against Austria.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 8.—The Russian circular note to the powers protesting against the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegvina will be issued tonight, according to the latest advices from the Foreign Office. Public opinion strongly supports the government in its protest against Austria and just as strongly approves of Bulgaria's declaration of independence.

Wedding

Baltimore, Oct. 8.—An event in society today was the marriage of Miss Orrie Warfield, eldest daughter of ex-Governor and Mrs. Edwin Warfield, to Mr. William Hugh Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Harris, of Binghampton, N. Y. The ceremony was performed at Oakdale, the beautiful ancestral estate of ex-Governor Warfiel, by Rev. John Timothy Stone and was followed by a breakfast.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.

Charles O. Bowles, colored, was arrested last night by Chief Goods and Policeman Ferguson, on information furnished police headquarters by Clifton S. Ballenger, a grocer, and Edward O'Neal, a railway employe. Mr. Ballenger had been furnished by the police with a copy of the description of the murderer sent out by T. T. Tynan, chief of police of Portsmouth, and when a strange negro appeared in his neighborhood yesterday, it occurred to him that certain scars on the man's face and tattoo marks on his arms corresponded with this description. Mr Ballenger communicated his suspicion to O'Neal, who followed the negro and heard him tell other negroes conflicting stories as to where he came from and what he had been doing; it was finally decided to notify the police. At police headquarters last night Bowles expressed no fear of the police being able to connect him with an crime. He said he left Lynchburg last December and went to Washington, where he worked in a livery stable until about two months ago, when he went to Baltimore. Chief Goods communicated with Washington this morning in regard to the negro's employment there, but could get no satisfactory information regarding him. This morning Cowles was photographed and a copy sent to Portsmouth.

FLOATED LAST EVENING.

As stated yesterday the ferryboat Lackawanna, which operates between Washington and Alexandria, was stuck on a mud bar in the river yesterday in the early morning, the result of having gone off her course in the heavy fog. The tug boat D. M. Key rendered all the aid it could but of no avail. The fire tug from Washington was brought into service but could not move the steamer. About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the fireboat returned to the scene, and, the tide having risen considerably, was able to dislodge the Lackawanna, which was not injured.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

A called meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tomorrow night for the purpose of filling the vacancy on the police force occasioned by the resignation of Officer John Henderson. Many applications are before the commissioners and it is impossible to state as to who will be the lucky one. At one time in the history of the city the office of policeman was not much sought after, but now it seems as if every other man wants it.

ANCIENT ORDER HIBERNIANS.

At a meeting of the county board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians last night the following officers were elected: F. T. Quinn, president; J. J. Hanratty, president; Rev. H. J. Cutler, chaplain; T. H. Fegan, financial secretary; L. H. Dolan, recording secretary; James Roche, treasurer. Considerable routine business was transacted and arrangements were made for future meetings.

S. KANN, SONS & CO.

As will be seen by an advertisement in today's paper S. Kann, Sons & Co. are offering Lion's Tooth Powder at 9 cents a box. This is an exceptional offer, and should be taken advantage of by Alexandrians visiting Washington. This offer stands good for tomorrow and Saturday only.

BIG CATCH OF FISH.

A young railroad man went down the river this morning and anchored his boat at the mouth of the little channel which empties into the river from Hunting creek and placed two fishing lines overboard. In less than 100 minutes he landed 14 bass, two rockfish and 5 Mississippi catfish, the bunch weighing in the neighborhood of 55 pounds. The smallest of the bunch weighed 1½ pounds.

PRETTY DANCE.

The Fancbon Pleasure Club gave their second dance of the season at McBurney's Hall last night which was largely attended. The new "barn dance" was introduced and proved very enjoyable. The managers of the occasion were Messrs. Charles Blondheim, Harry Dachslager and Jerome Kaufmann. After the dance supper was served at the Hotel Rammel.

POLICE COURT.

There were but two cases before the Police Court this morning. A white man who had been arrested for drunkenness forfeited his collateral by failing to appear, and two young men charged with fighting were fined $2.50 each.

In the second section of George Washington Park there are only 20 lots remaining to be sold to conclude the park, and it looks as if these will be sold in a few days.

CLAIMS SELF DEFENCE.

Since the liberation of Joseph Trammel on $1,000 bail, furnished by his mother, from the Fairfax county jail, where, on Sunday, he attempted suicide by cutting his throat, it has developed that his brother-in-law, Frank Peacock, whose murder is charged against Trammel, was awaiting trial before the fall term of the court on a criminal charge.

Dr. Leigh, of Covin Run, where Trammel is confined at his mother's home, reported that the injured man is rapidly recovering from the effect of the wound, and that unless blood poisoning sets in he should be able to leave the house within ten days. Dr. Moncure, of Fairfax, who attended Trammel after the attempt at suicide, also is of the opinion that the man will recover. Trammel asserts that he shot Peacock in self defense, and says that he will be able to prove this to a jury.

DISCOVERY DAY.

Discovery Day will be celebrated next Monday night by Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus, at the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall with a big musical and literary progamme and members of the order and their lady friends have been invited to be present. The affair will conclude with dancing and refreshments. The orator of the evening will be Matt Holloran, of the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington. Both local and Washington talent has been engaged, and the programme includes a comedy sketch by the Carroll Institute Dramatic Club, of Washington.

AMUSEMENTS.

The crowds which nightly gather in the three motion picture houses are increasing and the proprietors are beginning to regain lost fortunes occasioned by a long and hot summer. They are trying to amuse the people and are sparing no expense. The shows are all first class and should be patronized.

At the Alexandria Amusement Company's there will be used 3,000 feet of film on motion pictures. A fine selection will be had tonight which will be worth seeing. Either of the six subjects is alone worth the money you expend.

The Opera House continues to attract large crowds and the pictures are well worth seeing. Those who attended the performance last night pronounced it first class. The managers are up-to-date people and will lend every effort to please the theatre goers. Entire change of films tonight.

The Elite Picture Company will give a big show tonight. "Peculiar People," and "Grandpa's Pill's." Don't fail to take them in they are fine. "A Daughter's Honesty" and "Good Dinner Badly Digested" are special attractions for tonight. The Vardettas in their great box mystery emerge after being securely locked and tied with ropes.

[COMMUNICATED.

CITY WORK.

I will say in reply to an article headed "City Work" which appeared in Tuesday's Gazette, that the work was contract work and not done by day labor as published. The contracts were let separately and not as a whole—the brick work, the concrete work, the plaster work, the terazzo work, the carpenter work, and the painting, was all contract work and let to the different contractors of Alexandria except the terazzo work which was done by a Washington contractor. If anything was done by day labor I would like to know what it was unless it was cleaning up the dirt that the contractors made. I further think that the article is a great injustice to the Alexandria contractors because the bid of the Washington contractors was not accepted and the work was done by the Alexandria contractors. If the committee had over $600 worth of extra work done I would like to know what was done extra of the plans and specifications to cost that amount of money. D.

[The writer of the above but proves what was stated in the article complained of and which was not intended to do injustice to the contractors, but to advise them. The article did not state that the work was done by day labor. But the fact remains. Bids were asked for the entire Court House improvement work. An Alexandrian was the lowest bidder and was given the contract. He subsequently withdrew his bid and others were asked for. A Washingtonian was the lowest bidder when the second lot of bids was opened, but the city engineer and the committee on public property thought his bid too high. They then, as stated in the article complained of, divided up the work and gave out separate contracts—for the brickwork, carpentery, plumbing, concrete, plastering, painting &c., and by doing this saved the city $1,100 on a $4,800 job.

Boy Injured by Special Officers.

New York, Oct. 8.—Drastic action against the so-called "special officers" employed by the New York Taxicab Company to break the strike of its chauffeurs is expected to be taken by the police today. The authorities are aroused by the wanton shooting yesterday of a fourteen-year-old school boy, who was returning home from night school, by a party of these "specials," two of whom have been arrested to be held pending the death of the boy, Robert Quailey, which is expected at the Roosevelt Hospital at any moment. City policemen and citizens who saw the two taxicabs loaded with the company's strike breakers speed along west Fifty-seventh street while their occupants stood up and fired at random into the throng of pedestrians who had in no way attacked them, denounce the act as an outrage, perpetrated by madmen. The two "specials" arrested after the shooting gave their names as Robert Stutts and Richard Dineen. Both are mere boys. The striking chauffeurs claim that the company is hiring thugs to break the strike.

Beau Nash as a Gambler.

When the late Earl of T. was a youth he was passionately fond of play and never better pleased than with having Mr. Nash for his antagonist. Nash saw with concern his lordship's foible and undertook to cure him, though by a very disagreeable remedy. Conscious of his own superior skill, he determined to engage him in single play for a very considerable sum. His lordship in proportion as he lost his game lost his temper, too, and as he approached the gulf seemed still more eager for ruin. He lost his estate. Some writings were put into the winner's possession. His very equipage was offered as a last stake, and he lost that also, but when our generous gamester had found his lordship sufficiently punished for his temerity he returned all, only stipulating that he should be paid £5,000 whenever he should think proper to make the demand. However, he never made any such demand during his lordship's lifetime, but some time after his decease, Mr. Nash's affairs being in (sic) the wane, he demanded the money of his lordship's heirs, who honorably paid it without any hesitation.—"History of Gambling In England."

The Margin of Profit.

"There was a general storekeeper," said a financier, "who was forced to the wall by hard times and resolved to make an assignment. He figured out that he would be able to pay 40 cents on the dollar. Well, a certain wholesaler that he had dealt pretty heavily with heard of his plight and came post-haste to see him.

"'What!' the wholesaler shouted. 'Going to make an assignment! Pay only 40 cents on the dollar! A pretty state of things this is!'

"'Calm yourself, Mr. Wholesaler,' said the general storekeeper. 'It is true I am going to assign. These hard times have played the very deuce with me. And it's true I'm going to pay only 40 cents on the dollar. But all your goods, it happens, are intact. Not a case has been opened, and they shall be returned to you at once.'

"'What!' shouted the wholesaler, angrier than ever. 'Return my goods! Not on your life! I insist on my lawful 40 per cent, the same as the other creditors.'"—Washington Star.

Names of Flowers.

It is interesting to know how certain flowers get their names. Many were named after individuals. For instance, fuchsias were so called because they were discovered by Leonard Fuchs. Dahlias were named for Andre Dahl, who brought them from Peru. The camellia was so called for a missionary named Kamel, who brought some magnificent specimens of the flower to France from Japan. He called it the rose of Japan, but his friends changed it to camellia. Magnolias were named in honor of Professor Magnol de Montpellier, who first brought the beautiful tree to France from America and Asia. Because it trembled with the wind is the meaning of anemone. The Latin word to wash is lavare, and lavender received its name because the Romans put the flowers into water when they washed to perfume their hands.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Roman Father.

A distinguished scholar was the guest of one of the high schools of Buffalo and was greatly amused, according to a writer in the Commercial of that city, by the answer given by one of the pupils in the class in Roman history to a somewhat exacting question put by the teacher.

A lad was asked to state concisely in one sentence the distinctive difference between the society of ancient Rome and that of the present day in America. After a moment's reflection the young fellow replied:

"The distinctive difference between the society of ancient Rome and that of our day is that the father was the head of the Roman family."

The whole class shared the visitor's enjoyment of the palpable although probably unconscious hit.

Bath Not Popular in Spain.

In the quaint Spanish city of Toledo the traveler is shown upon the banks of the Tagus below Wamba's palace the alcove in which La Cava was wont to bathe until seen by Roderick, and her fate was none the happiest at the hands of the last of the Goths. To this day she is referred to as an awful example of the fate that awaits those who dare to bathe in water too often. The Spanish woman is none too liberal in her use of water for personal cleanliness, preferring oil or some other medium.

Not Good at Riddles.

A lawyer was questioning a new client, a widow, the other day, about her history. "My history," she replied, "is simplicity itself. My first was the happiness of my life, my second was goodness itself, my third"—

"Excuse me, madam," interrupted the attorney, "but really we aren't here to guess charades."

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W.
